AULOTS contains existing holdings for 5256 serial titles held in 96 theological and religious libraries in Australia and New Zealand. A valuable list of the contributing libraries includes their addresses, contact numbers and details of inter-library loan arrangements. Member institutions can now update their holdings online.

ANZTLA Newsletter

The ANZTLA Newsletter (ISSN 1030-701X) was published in paper format until 2008. Transition to an on-line Newsletter is effective from late 2008, thus closing the era of the paper journal. It provides a means of communication between members and other people interested in theological librarianship in Australia, New Zealand, and beyond.
